Green manufacturing is one of the core strengths of Godrej Appliances. Both our manufacturing units - in Shirwal as well as Mohali, are considered benchmarks. In 2015, Godrej manufacturing units were the first to receive the 'GreenCo' certification by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII) and it was reinstated as "GreenCo Platinum Plus" in 2019. That's not all, the Mohali manufacturing unit also received the prestigious 'Green Factory Platinum' certification by Indian Green Building Council (IGBC). In 2020 all our business operations have received the 'Responsible Export Organization' certification by CII.

Performance testing: Every Deep Freezer is tested against harsh environmental conditions, like extreme temperatures and humidity levels, to provide guaranteed performance anywhere in the world. The performance of the product under higher fluctuating voltage and power surges is also checked.

Godrej & Boyce Mfg. Co. Ltd. Mohal, Punjab and Shirwal, Maharashtra, India

Reliability testing:
A tropical country, like India, has varying temperatures across its regions. Deep Freezers are tested considering these variations, specifically targeting maximum temperature and humidity conditions recorded in various regions. Even the packaging of all the models are tested to withstand the transport conditions in our country, so that customers receive the product in the best condition.

EMC testing:
Testing is done under severe conditions according to the international standards laid down by IEC (International Electrotechnical Commission), taking into consideration the nature of electric supply in our country.
