Godrej Kitchen Systems has always pioneered advanced design solutions that add beauty as well as effortless function to your kitchen. Every product and component is carefully crafted, taking into consideration the unique requirements of the Indian kitchen and home maker.

Taking this tradition of intuitive design further, we now bring you the revolutionary SKIDO, an innovative range of drawers and organisers. Creating space, increasing your productivity, saving you time and energy, with its intelligent and stylish organisation. Finally, Indian kitchens have an elegant as well as efficient answer to their storage needs.

Think Indian. Think Innovation.

The Indian cooking habit is truly elaborate and needs a diverse array of pans, kadhais, tavas, masala boxes, plates, thalis and various kinds of utensils. None of these can be accommodated by foreign-made baskets and accessories.

A good looking kitchen is a delight, but what's more important is an easy-to-use kitchen. So at Godrej, we undertook extensive research to study Indian kitchens and the different styles of cooking.

The resultant deep insights helped us create the SKIDO range of innovative kitchen storage solutions that make the lives of Indian homemakers easier and better.

Cutlery Organiser

Cutlery Organiser

Problem

In the existing baskets, a lot of kitchen cutlery isn't easily accessible to you. This leads to clutter and confusion. For example, when you need a spatula, you find it buried under other cutlery, while oddly-shaped serving spoons are difficult to extract. Also, lack of flexible partitions create rigid spaces which are restrictive and difficult to access.

Solution

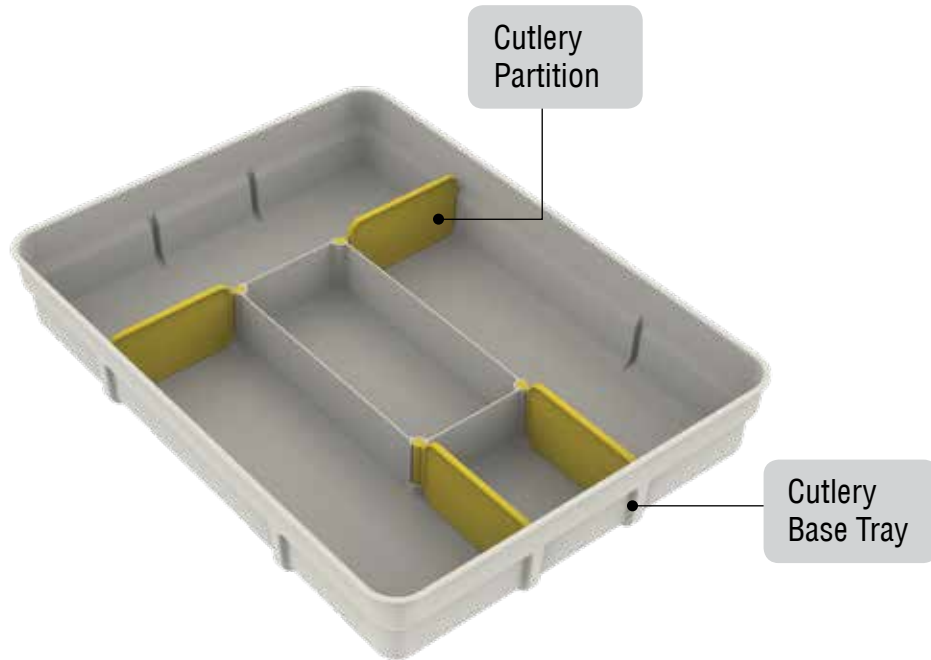

With the SKIDO Cutlery Organiser, things are different. Now, all the cutlery is visible, neatly placed and easily accessible. Its adjustable partitions offer you the choice to customise according to your needs and habits. With your belans, chimtas, zara's and spoons easily stored, put an end to cutlery clutter. Easy to remove and clean, the Cutlery Organiser helps you in neatly arranging even the odd-sized cutlery.

Thali Organiser

Problem

Thalis come in various sizes which make optimum space utilisation difficult. It is a major hassle to take out those smaller thalis from amongst the bigger ones. Also, thalis cause an irritating rattling noise.

Solution

The SKIDO Thali Organiser brings neatness to thali storage. It comes with a tab-like component (thali separator) that press-fits into the wire drawer. The thali separator can slide on the wire guides and can stop thalis from rolling and rattling. Additionally, it has space for serving glasses which are mostly used in tandem with thalis.

Fry Pan Organiser

Fry Pan Organiser

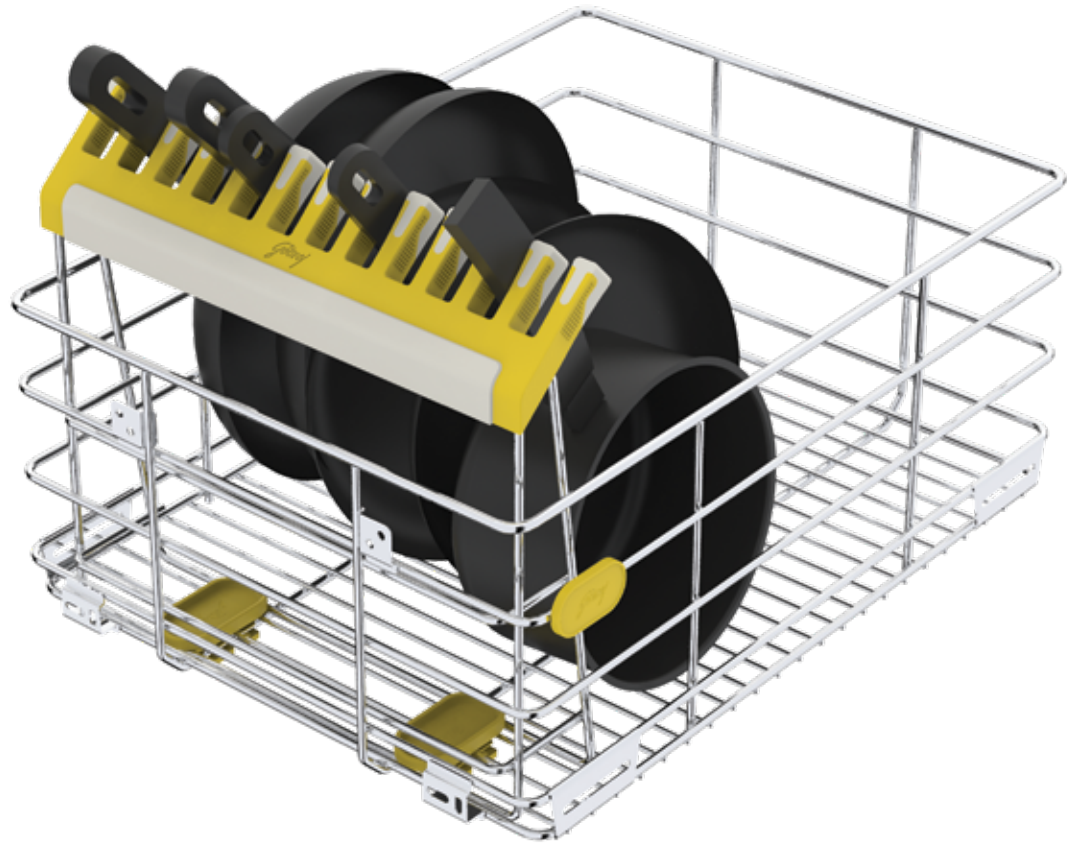

Problem

The fry pan is the most problematic of kitchenware. In most households, pans are stacked one on top of the other. Which means, every time you take out a certain pan, a lot of scratching and rattling happens that is harmful for the pan and annoying to the ear.

Solution

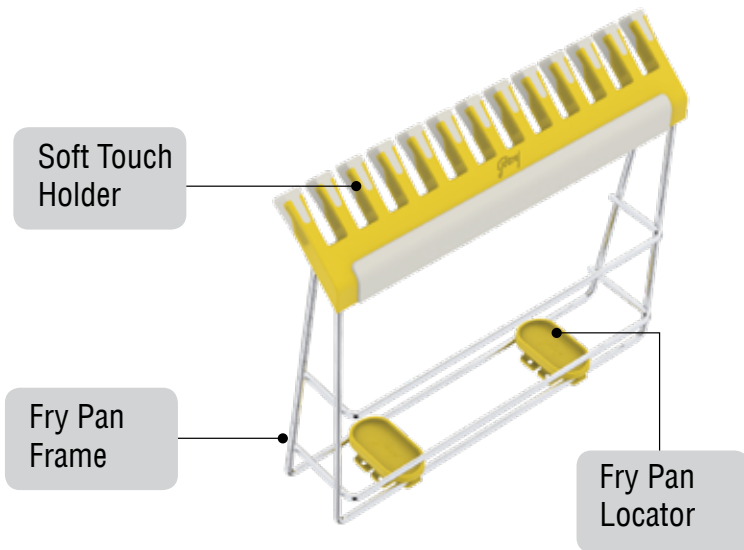

An innovative solution designed with smart thinking, the SKIDO Fry Pan Organiser is a uniquely-designed component that holds the pans in place by their handles. The SKIDO fry pan organiser clamps the pan-handles in its flexible soft touch holder while storing them in the drawer. This helps in the efficient use of storage space, allows easy access, prevents entangling of pan handles and also keeps the pans from getting scratched.

Jars and Bottles Organiser

Problem

Masala containers, jars, boxes, etc. are kept together in the same basket. Small/ short/ flat containers are spread over multiple baskets resulting in poor utilisation of space. Also, there is no easy way to use the vertical storage space in the drawer.
